

Check List for Preparing Chinese Christian Returnees

Returnee's name:

Mentor's name:

Date:

You can fill in this PDF by clicking on the boxes

Discipled as a Chinese Believer	Yes	Unsure	No
1. The returnee reads the Chinese Bible some of the time.
2. The returnee prays in Chinese some of the time.
3. The returnee has conversations about spiritual things in Chinese some of the time.
4. The returnee attends a Chinese Bible study, fellowship or Church some of the time.
Pre-Return Training	Yes	Unsure	No
5. The returnee has had training in transition, grief and reverse-cultural shock.
6. The returnee has had training in understanding the Chinese Church as well as the political, social and cultural situation in China.
7. The returnee has had training in understanding the issues faced by Christians in terms of family, marriage and relationships in China.
8. The returnee has had training in understanding issues faced by Christians in the work place in China. (e.g. life balance/work hours, employer expectations, corruption etc.)
9. The returnee has made a clear profession of faith by explaining the gospel message in their own words and giving testimony to the changes in their lives.
Networking	Yes	Unsure	No
10. The returnee is willing to be followed up in China by Chinese brothers and sisters and is willing to connect to a local Chinese church or fellowship. They understand that their fellowship and involvement will need to be with Chinese people in Chinese language.
11. There is a mentor in Australia who is committed to stay connected with the returnee and mentor them (via, email, Skype, WeChat) for the next 1-2 years or until they are settled in a Church or fellowship in China.
12. The returnee's mentor has completed a referral form and has introduced the returnee into a network that will attempt to connect the returnee with a Church or fellowship in China. This should be done ideally at least 2 months before returning to China.			